Week 11: One on One Time

How can you make each child feel important and really get to know them? Devote time to just that child!

It really is just that easy, but when you have multiple children or are used to doing things as a group one on one time doesn't often happen naturally.

This week plan some one on one time with your child. It doesn't have to be an elaborate outing or event, just setting aside a special hour or two will mean the world to your child.

One on One Time Ideas

Make a plan to spend one on one time listening to your child and talking with your child. It doesn't have to be an elaborate outing or event, just setting aside a special hour or two will mean the world to your child.

Want to have some quiet time at home?

- Play 20 Questions
- Teach them a new card game or play their favorite board game
- Paint her finger nails
- Bake Cookies
- Build a fort and read in it
- Play video games together
- Work on a puzzle together
- Read a book together
- Make a Bird Feeder and hang it in your yard

“Listen earnestly to anything your children want to tell you, no matter what. If you don't listen eagerly to the little stuff when they are little, they won't tell you the big stuff when they are big, because to them all of it has always been big stuff.”

~ Catherine Wallace

Is your child a sports fanatic?

- Go on a Bike Ride. Don't have a bike? Here are a list of places you can rent them.
- Try out Roller Skating.
- Head to the bowling alley. The Kids Bowl FREE Summer Program is still going on.
